

ACCUSED BY A LITTLE GIRL. POOR LITTLE RAGAMUFFINS.

Ex-Convict Harder Held on a Serious Charge.

He Is a Salvation Army Soldier and Says He Is Innocent.

"I am a king's son and I cannot do wrong," said Charles Harder, twenty-four years old, a clerical-looking prisoner, who was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court to-day to answer to a charge of assaulting Mary Platt, a fourteen-year-old girl, of 13 West Sixty-fourth street. Harder is a member of the Salvation Army. He has already served two terms in Sing Sing for larceny and forgery.

On regaining his freedom on May 20, Harder went to the Prison Reform Institution, where he remained until the second week, when he took a position in the tea store of John Downes at 89 Amsterdam avenue. He slept in the rear of the store.

According to the story, she was looking into the store window at 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Harder came out of the hallway and dragged her into the tea room. Miss Mary said she screamed and struggled, but no one came to her assistance. She went home crying and told her mother her story.

Mrs. Hall at once took her to the West Sixty-eighth street police station. Detectives Warne and Walters found Harder at work in the store at 7 o'clock and arrested him and placed him under arrest. He denies this charge.

He said that at the time the girl was seen was at the tea room of the Salvation Army barracks at West Eleventh street. He asked for an adjournment to this, and Justice Voorhees set the hearing down for tomorrow morning.

DR. WHITEHEAD HELD.

He Is Charged with Performing an Illegal Operation.

Dr. Newton Whitehead, of 218 East Forty-eighth street, was held in $1,500 bail by Justice Koch, in the Essex Market Police Court, to-day. He was arrested on complaint of Joseph A. Britton and Col. B. J. Jayne, of the New York Society for the Enforcement of the Criminal Law.

At 218, Herkert, twenty years old, of 27 Seventh street, alleges that she was wronged by a young man named Richard Kurch, while she was living at Mrs. Kurch's, of 109 Madison avenue. The events were Kurch was a known borden Detective Britton stated that the Borden woman told him that she was taken to Dr. Whitehead, who had been recommended to her by the Kurches. They were on Dec. 4, 8 and 11, 1893.

After he had left the young woman became suspicious, and Dr. Alexander Beck, of 27 Seventh street, was called. Dr. Beck found that she was suffering from the effects of an illegal operation, and it was with difficulty that he succeeded in saving her life.

Dr. Whitehead denied the charge. He is the physician who was arrested in the recent raid made by the Society for the Enforcement of the Criminal Law.

JAILED FOR CONTEMPT.

Martin Failed to Pay His Wife Alimony.

Philip Martin is in the Ludlow Street Jail for contempt of court in refusing to pay his wife alimony and counsel fees pending an action for absolute divorce.

On Jan. 22 Judge Dugro, of the Superior Court, ordered Martin to pay his wife alimony, but he only paid her two or three weeks. Since then he has kept out of the way. The amount now due his wife is $35.

HOW WAS SMITH HURT?

Found Unconscious and Said to Have Fallen from a Cab.

Policeman Bowes, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, shortly before midnight last night, was attracted by a crowd in front of 29 East Seventeenth street. A cab stood at the curb and he found a well-dressed man lying unconscious on the sidewalk. He was bleeding from his ears and suffering from a supposed fracture of the skull. He was very much of a foreigner, and the man in the cab described him as Frank W. Bowdin, of 495 Ninth avenue, Brooklyn.

When Frank Smith was his friend and that they had come together from Brooklyn in the cab to see a brother of Smith's who lives at the Seventh street hotel. On being questioned, he said that Smith got out of the cab and must have fallen. Bowes had Smith removed to the Presbyterian Hospital, where he has not as yet regained consciousness.

Bowdin was taken into custody on a charge of intoxication, and Justice Voorhees, after hearing testimony, held him in $500 for further examination. It was said that Bowdin and Smith had only 10 cents between them, and were unable to pay the bill, which was driven them about since 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Major Gilroy Approves It.

Major Gilroy has approved the resolution of the Board of Aldermen, requesting the New York representatives in Congress to support the letter-carriers' salary bill introduced by Congressmen Cannon, for increasing the salary of letter-carriers from $1,200 to $1,500.

Round About Town.

George Conlin, also accused of a New Haven crime, who was living with a woman from New Haven, was arrested yesterday evening. He escaped from a Westchester residence while a trial was in progress, was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Clegg, of the Bronx County, in the Harlem Police Court this morning.

Michael A. Short, twenty years old, of 524 West 110th and 115th streets, Bronx, was held in $1,000 bail by Justice Koch, of the Bronx County Court this morning, charged with stealing $10 worth of tools and clothing from the Waverly Hotel, Clinton Hill, on April 1. The man was a negro and was not as yet released.

The dead body of Lizzie Anderson was found in a basement in the Bronx, and the police traced it to a Bronx tenement. The man was employed on the boat and all the other evidence pointed to him as the killer.

The body of an unknown man was found in the East River early this morning at 50th street. The man was about thirty-five years of age and died apparently of drowning.

The funeral of the city on March 21 was reported to Comptroller Flaherty to be $10,000.

At 9 o'clock this morning the case was discovered in Bronx Park, Bronx, Bronx. The body was a man, about 40 years old, and was found in a curtain catching fire from a gas jet. The gas was burning in the basement, and no alarm was sent to the damage will probably not exceed $25.

Wire News in Brief.

The Omaha police are looking for Blanche Foster, 19, who left New York last Saturday afternoon for South Dakota to see her father, who has not been heard of since.

We destroyed the wholesale book and stationery houses of H. W. Wirt & Co. at Milwaukee yesterday. The loss is $10,000, fully covered by insurance.

The Criollo Creek miners held a stormy meeting at their camp yesterday, and rejected with the mine owners' proposition of $2,000 a day.

Coming Events.

Regular meeting of Good Government Club to discuss Black Friday, this evening at 8 o'clock, 75 West One Hundred and Fourth Street.

Organist Will G. Macfarlane's recital to-morrow afternoon at All Souls' Chapel, Madison Avenue and Sixty-sixth street.

The Columbia Club, of South Brooklyn, will give a black performance in its season on Friday evening, April 20. The play will be a three-act farce comedy, entitled "Our Regrets." A reception will follow the performance.

Four Starving Boys Picked Up in a Hallway.

They Were Homeless and Picked Food Out of Barrels.

Thomas Pascal, fourteen years old, of Oliver Barney Tierney, fourteen years old, a clerical-looking prisoner, who was arraigned in the Yorkville Police Court to-day to answer to a charge of assaulting Mary Platt, a fourteen-year-old girl, of 13 West Sixty-fourth street. Harder is a member of the Salvation Army. He has already served two terms in Sing Sing for larceny and forgery.

On regaining his freedom on May 20, Harder went to the Prison Reform Institution, where he remained until the second week, when he took a position in the tea store of John Downes at 89 Amsterdam avenue. He slept in the rear of the store.

According to the story, she was looking into the store window at 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Harder came out of the hallway and dragged her into the tea room. Miss Mary said she screamed and struggled. They were all ravaged, and their physical condition was pitiable.

Pascal, who had stopped it from Orlie, who had come from Philadelphia last month, was so weak from exposure and lack of nourishment that he had to crawl on his hands and knees. He was a stricken, half-naked, half-starved, pitiful-looking child.

Pascal had been picked up from the street by Justice Talor in the Tomba Court this morning.

They had been found sleeping in the hallway of 29 Clark Place last night by Policeman Baker, of the Clark street station, who was working in the tea store of John Downes at 89 Amsterdam avenue. He slept in the rear of the store.

According to the story, she was looking into the store window at 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Harder came out of the hallway and dragged her into the tea room. Miss Mary said she screamed and struggled, but no one came to her assistance. She went home crying and told her mother her story.

Mrs. Hall at once took her to the West Sixty-eighth street police station.

Detectives Warne and Walters found Harder at work in the store at 7 o'clock and arrested him and placed him under arrest. He denies this charge.

He said that at the time the girl was seen was at the tea room of the Salvation Army barracks at West Eleventh street. He asked for an adjournment to this, and Justice Voorhees set the hearing down for tomorrow morning.

WEIST HELD WITHOUT BAIL.

Without Provocation, He Almost Killed Musciano Corin.

William Weist, a jeweller, forty-six years old, of 169 Avenue E, was held without bail in the Tomba Police Court this morning on a charge of felonious assault.

Weist, a man living at 20 Elm street, East Forty-eighth street, was held without bail by Justice Talor in the tea store of John Downes at 89 Amsterdam avenue. He slept in the rear of the store.

According to the story, he was looking into the store window at 8:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon when Weist came out of the hallway and dragged her into the tea room. Miss Mary said she screamed and struggled, but no one came to her assistance. She went home crying and told her mother her story.

Mrs. Hall at once took her to the West Sixty-eighth street police station. Detectives Warne and Walters found Harder at work in the store at 7 o'clock and arrested him and placed him under arrest. He denies this charge.

He said that at the time the girl was seen was at the tea room of the Salvation Army barracks at West Eleventh street. He asked for an adjournment to this, and Justice Voorhees set the hearing down for tomorrow morning.

DR. WHITEHEAD HELD.

He Is Charged with Performing an Illegal Operation.

Dr. Newton Whitehead, of 218 East Forty-eighth street, was held in $1,500 bail by Justice Koch, in the Essex Market Police Court, to-day. He was arrested on complaint of Joseph A. Britton and Col. B. J. Jayne, of the New York Society for the Enforcement of the Criminal Law.

At 218, Herkert, twenty years old, of 27 Seventh street, alleges that she was wronged by a young man named Richard Kurch, while she was living at Mrs. Kurch's, of 109 Madison avenue. The events were Kurch was a known borden Detective Britton stated that the Borden woman told him that she was taken to Dr. Whitehead, who had been recommended to her by the Kurches. They were on Dec. 4, 8 and 11, 1893.

After he had left the young woman became suspicious, and Dr. Alexander Beck, of 27 Seventh street, was called. Dr. Beck found that she was suffering from the effects of an illegal operation, and it was with difficulty that he succeeded in saving her life.

Dr. Whitehead denied the charge. He is the physician who was arrested in the recent raid made by the Society for the Enforcement of the Criminal Law.

JAILED FOR CONTEMPT.

Martin Failed to Pay His Wife Alimony.

Philip Martin is in the Ludlow Street Jail for contempt of court in refusing to pay his wife alimony and counsel fees pending an action for absolute divorce.

On Jan. 22 Judge Dugro, of the Superior Court, ordered Martin to pay his wife alimony, but he only paid her two or three weeks. Since then he has kept out of the way. The amount now due his wife is $35.

HOW WAS SMITH HURT?

Found Unconscious and Said to Have Fallen from a Cab.

Policeman Bowes, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, shortly before midnight last night, was attracted by a crowd in front of 29 East Seventeenth street. A cab stood at the curb and he found a well-dressed man lying unconscious on the sidewalk. He was bleeding from his ears and suffering from a supposed fracture of the skull. He was very much of a foreigner, and the man in the cab described him as Frank W. Bowdin, of 495 Ninth avenue, Brooklyn.

When Frank Smith was his friend and that they had come together from Brooklyn in the cab to see a brother of Smith's who lives at the Seventh street hotel. On being questioned, he said that Smith got out of the cab and must have fallen. Bowes had Smith removed to the Presbyterian Hospital, where he has not as yet regained consciousness.

Bowdin was taken into custody on a charge of intoxication, and Justice Voorhees, after hearing testimony, held him in $500 for further examination. It was said that Bowdin and Smith had only 10 cents between them, and were unable to pay the bill, which was driven them about since 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

Major Gilroy Approves It.

Major Gilroy has approved the resolution of the Board of Aldermen, requesting the New York representatives in Congress to support the letter-carriers' salary bill introduced by Congressmen Cannon, for increasing the salary of letter-carriers from $1,200 to $1,500.

Round About Town.

George Conlin, also accused of a New Haven crime, who was living with a woman from New Haven, was arrested yesterday evening. He escaped from a Westchester residence while a trial was in progress, was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Clegg, of the Bronx County, in the Harlem Police Court this morning.

Michael A. Short, twenty years old, of 524 West 110th and 115th streets, Bronx, was held in $1,000 bail by Justice Koch, of the Bronx County Court this morning, charged with stealing $10 worth of tools and clothing from the Waverly Hotel, Clinton Hill, on April 1. The man was a negro and was not as yet released.

The dead body of Lizzie Anderson was found in a basement in the Bronx, and the police traced it to a Bronx tenement. The man was employed on the boat and all the other evidence pointed to him as the killer.

The body of an unknown man was found in the East River early this morning at 50th street. The man was about thirty-five years of age and died apparently of drowning.

The funeral of the city on March 21 was reported to Comptroller Flaherty to be $10,000.

At 9 o'clock this morning the case was discovered in Bronx Park, Bronx, Bronx. The body was a man, about 40 years old, and was found in a curtain catching fire from a gas jet. The gas was burning in the basement, and no alarm was sent to the damage will probably not exceed $25.

Wire News in Brief.

The Omaha police are looking for Blanche Foster, 19, who left New York last Saturday afternoon for South Dakota to see her father, who has not been heard of since.

We destroyed the wholesale book and stationery houses of H. W. Wirt & Co. at Milwaukee yesterday. The loss is $10,000, fully covered by insurance.

The Criollo Creek miners held a stormy meeting at their camp yesterday, and rejected with the mine owners' proposition of $2,000 a day.

Coming Events.

Regular meeting of Good Government Club to discuss Black Friday, this evening at 8 o'clock, 75 West One Hundred and Fourth Street.

Organist Will G. Macfarlane's recital to-morrow afternoon at All Souls' Chapel, Madison Avenue and Sixty-sixth street.

The Columbia Club, of South Brooklyn, will give a black performance in its season on Friday evening, April 20. The play will be a three-act farce comedy, entitled "Our Regrets." A reception will follow the performance.

Flats and Apartments to Let.Unfurnished—East Side.

BRONX ST., 100-110, 112-118, 120-126, 130-136, 140-146, 150-156, 160-166, 170-176, 180-186, 190-196, 200-206, 210-216, 220-226, 230-236, 240-246, 250-256, 260-266, 270-276, 280-286, 290-296, 300-306, 310-316, 320-326, 330-336, 340-346, 350-356, 360-366, 370-376, 380-386, 390-396, 400-406, 410-416, 420-426, 430-436, 440-446, 450-456, 460-466, 470-476, 480-486, 490-496, 500-506, 510-516, 520-526, 530-536, 540-546, 550-556, 560-566, 570-576, 580-586, 590-596, 600-606, 610-616, 620-626, 630-636, 640-646, 650-656, 660-666, 670-676, 680-686, 690-696, 700-706, 710-716, 720-726, 730-736, 740-746, 750-756, 760-766, 770-776, 780-786, 790-796, 800-806, 810-816, 820-826, 830-836, 840-846, 850-856, 860-866, 870-876, 880-886, 890-896, 900-906, 910-916, 920-926, 930-936, 940-946, 950-956, 960-966, 970-976, 980-986, 990-996, 1000-1006, 1010-1016, 1020-1026, 1030-1036, 1